Deerfield Public Library

Genealogy Resources

Library Databases

Library-provided article databases can sometimes be useful for researching local and family history. They are available remotely through our website at www.deerfieldlibrary.org under the "Reference/Research" tab. You will need your Deerfield Public Library card for access. Please call the Reference desk if you have any difficulty logging in.

HERITAGE QUESTIONLINE

Provides several genealogy tools. Most importantly, complete U.S. Census records from 1790 through 1930.

Most of the content dates from:

Deerfield Review 1995 – present Chicago Tribune 1985 – present.

Chicago Tribune Historic Archive 1850 - 1984

Provides telephone numbers and address for listed residents of the U.S.A. and Canada.

More resources on other side

Useful Books

The most helpful book s for genealogic research will be located in the following areas around call number 929.1 & 929.3. For local history, try the 977.3__ area.

Reference

Deerfield High School yearbooks 1968 - 2003

The genealogist's address book, 929.1025 BEN
Guide to Jewish genealogy, 929.1 AVO
History of Chicago, IL 977.311 MOS
A history of Lake County, Illinois 977.3 HAL
Historical encyclopedia of Illinois and History of Lake County 977.3 PAR

Past and present of Lake County, Illinois 977.321 PAS

Researcher's guide to American genealogy

929.1 GRE

The Source: A guidebook to American genealogy

929.3 SOU

Non Fiction

Bicentennial plus three	977.31 PIT
But not next door	325.26 ROS
Family tree problem solver,	929.1 RIS
Finding your Chicago ancestors,	929.1 DUM
Fleet as a deer	977.321 FLE

Genealogist's companion and sourcebook

929.1072 CRO

History of Deerfield 977.3 REI

Irish family research made simple 929.1 COL

The organized family historian, 929.1 FLE

Polish family tree surnames, 929.1 OBA

Useful Free Websites

Some of the most accessible websites that have plenty of free content and handy tools for genealogical pursuits.

cyndislist.com

rootsweb.com

deathindexes.com

familysearch.org

gencircles.com

academic-genealogy.com

gravelocator.cem.va.gov

newspaperarchive.com

mayflowerhistory.com

Deerfield Public Library

920 Waukegan Road Deerfield, IL 60015 847.945.3311

Reference

847.580.8933 reference@deerfieldlibrary.org