

Older Persons and Aging Resource Center

Library Resources

Reference Librarian

There is so much great information out there it simply could not fit on this handout. Please ask us for more information because it is what we love to do!

Books

Subject headings to use: Older people; Older persons; Older men; Older women; Aging; Older Parents.

Online Resources

Gale Health and Wellness Resource Center This provides a dictionary for diseases and conditions, drugs, health organization directory, health assessment tools and articles.

Access through DPL website www.deerfieldlibrary.org

Reference and Research category

Select Online Resources

At Home use requires your DPL library card #

Local Resources

Alzheimer's Association Hotline	800-272-3900
Counseling—Home Visits	847-432-4981
Elder Abuse Hotline	866-800-1409
Elder Law Answers	www.elderlawanswers.com
Lake County Council for Seniors	847-244-1720
Transportation	847-945-0614

More helpful resources on the other side!

Government Resources

All of these resources have easy to use websites!

Administration on Aging assists older persons to fully participate in society and maintain their health and independence.

Phone: 312-353-3141

Fax: 312-886-8533

Website: www.aoa.gov

Alzheimer's Disease Education and Referral Center provides current and comprehensive information and resources.

Phone: 800-438-4380

Website: www.alzheimers.nia.nih.gov

Eldercare helps find local agencies that provide services such as transportation, meals, home care, and caregiver support.

Phone: 800-677-1116

Website: www.eldercare.gov

Medicare allows you to compare local dialysis facilities, health plans, home health agencies, hospitals, nursing homes and prescription drug plans as well as find a doctor, medical suppliers and long-term care.

Phone: 800-MEDICAR (633-4227) 24/7

Website: www.medicare.gov

Senior Health is sponsored by the National Institutes of Health and supplies health and wellness information for older adults.

Phone: 888-FINDNLM (346-3656)

Fax: 301-402-1384

Website: <http://nihseniorhealth.gov>

Social Security Office can help you apply for benefits or any other issues regarding benefits.

Address: 1930 N. Lewis
Waukegan, IL 60085

Phone: 800-772-1213

Website: www.ssa.gov

