The Silent Sister
by Diane Chamberlain
Thursday, June 9
10:30-11:30AM
Riley MacPherson has spent her entire life believing her older sister Lisa committed suicide as a teenager. Twenty years later, after her father’s death, Riley comes to realize that her sister is actually still alive. This shocking realization will force Riley to question the secrets in her family and decide what her past means to her present.

Miss Hazel and the Rosa Parks League
by Jonathan Odell
Thursday, July 14, 10:30-11:30AM
Set in pre-Civil Rights Mississippi, Miss Hazel and the Rosa Parks League is the story of two young mothers, Hazel and Vida, one wealthy and white and the other poor and black, who have only two things in common: the devastating loss of their children, and a deep and abiding loathing for one another.

A Fall of Marigolds
by Susan Meissner
Thursday August 11, 10:30-11:30AM
Though they lived almost a century apart, Clara Woods and Taryn Michaels have both convinced themselves that they are living the best they can following the tragic losses of their loves. Until a scarf covered in marigolds opens their eyes to the world still left around them.

Read for the Win
Adult Summer Reading Program
Saturday, June 11 – Sunday, August 7
Take time for yourself this summer and sign-up for Read for the Win, the Library’s Summer Reading Program. Participants who read, watch, or listen to five library titles this summer will be eligible to win one of four gift baskets. Attendance at any Adult program or class can count as one of your five titles. Stop by the Adult Services or Media desk (or at the sign-up table in the Lobby on Kick-off Day) to pick up a registration form and a free pedometer. (Quantities available while they last.)
Registration forms will be available starting Saturday, June 11.

The class will introduce markers, cartridge pens, and a dipping pen demonstration along with a history of one of the oldest art forms. Space is limited.

REAL PEOPLE REAL STORIES Series

A Ruff Road Home: The Court Case Dogs of Chicago
Tuesday, July 19, 7:00-8:30PM
Real People, Real Stories is a new series which focuses on ordinary people with extraordinary stories.

Not long ago, Chicagoland animals seized from neglectful or criminally charged owners were viewed solely as evidence. They were rescued, but then languished in a kennel until their owners' court cases concluded, and then they were typically euthanized. In 2010, Safe Humane Chicago launched the Court Case Dogs program – a not-for-profit group that gets these animals rehabilitated and adopted. Cynthia Bathurst, co-founder of Safe Humane Chicago, will discuss this thriving program and its team of volunteers, dog trainers, behavioral consultants, partner organizations and lastly, the court case dogs who moved beyond their histories and into homes of people who love them. A Ruff Road Home by Susan Russell will be available for purchase. Due to sensitive material, please no children under 10.

Gale Courses Contest
Take a class and get a prize!

Gale Courses are free, online, instructor-led classes on a wide variety of topics. Classes offered include: Accounting, Microsoft Office, Graphic Design, Meditation, Introduction to Guitar, and many more — there are over 350 to choose from, including certifications and Continuing Education credits.

To kick off this new resource for Deerfield Library patrons, the first 50 people who show us their Completion Letter and/or certificate from a finished course will receive a free giveaway, and will be entered to win a grand prize! Sign up for a class from home (deerfieldlibrary.org/online-resources, and click on “General”) or ask at the Adult Services desk for help getting started.

Contest runs June 1 - August 31. Courses begin monthly and are six weeks long; the June session starts June 15.

Get a narrated, virtual tour of Gale Courses with our eTutor video, “Getting Started with Gale Courses” available on our YouTube channel (YouTube.com/DeerfieldLibrary). We’ll walk you through all the steps to search for, enroll in, and attend classes and provide more detailed information on what to expect.

Saturday, June 4, 10:00AM-1:00PM

Whether you’re a high school student planning your next step, an adult thinking about re-entering the workforce, or an individual interested in personal enrichment, there’s a start for everyone at CLC. Visit with an admissions representative to learn about program offerings, online and hybrid courses, transfer opportunities, student support services, scholarships and financing college.
Your annual membership will enhance the materials and programs at our library so that it will better serve you and your family.

Library Meeting Rooms — Your Community Place

Community groups, including book clubs, homeowner associations, and Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts, keep the Library’s meeting rooms buzzing year-round. The three side-by-side rooms, with movable walls, can accommodate up to 100 people. Groups can reserve space up to three months in advance at no fee. All you need is a Deerfield library card! Full details at deerfieldlibrary.org/library-policies (click on “Meeting Room Policy”).

Meet one of our regular groups: the School District 113 Community Education Book Club for Advanced ESL Students. This instructor-led group meets every Monday during the regular school year, and focuses on one book for a whole semester. Program participants must be 16 years of age or older, and take a placement test. Details at dist113.org/depts/ce.

- The Friends are thinking about SUMMER! We are sponsoring some of the Children’s Summer Reading programs and prizes this year. Read all about it in this issue of Browsing and sign up early!
- Your memberships help us provide for these great programs. See form below and become a Friend.
- We’ll be at the Deerfield Farmers Market on July 16, selling gently used Cookbooks and Children’s Picture Books. We are in need of donations in those two categories, as well as Art, History, Gardening, and paperbacks.

The Friends can be contacted at 847-945-3311, ext 8895 or at friends@deerfieldlibrary.org. Also, check for updates on our Facebook page.

Couldn’t Have Done it Without You!

Blooming thanks to SWALCO (Solid Waste Agency of Lake County) for sponsoring our Green Day events, info table, and shoe recycling support.

A summer full of thanks to the Friends of the Deerfield Public Library for their sponsorship of several Youth Summer Reading Program events and incentives.

Shouts of gratitude to the Deerfield Community for their generous contributions for our food drive for the West Deerfield Township Food Pantry.

Thank you to the Deerfield Fine Arts Commission for sponsoring the popular “What’s it Worth? Antiques Appraisal Show”.

Thanks to DHS Designers!

For a second year, we had the honor of collaborating with Deerfield High School students for the creation of our dynamic Read for the Win Summer Reading Program graphics. Many thanks to (l-r) Fine Arts teacher Tim Bleck for his guidance, and to the design team of Robert Guzek and Dylan Callistein.
