Mr. Bill Seiden gave the Village Report.

6. FRIENDS OF THE LIBRARY REPORT
Ms. Susan Karp updated the Board on the activities of the Friends of the Library. The Friends participated in the annual Farmer’s Market. Book sales have been going very well and they have some money available to support the Library.

7. LIBRARY DIRECTOR’S REPORT
Ms. Falasz-Peterson stated that the Annual Joint Board Reception at Patty Turner Center will be held on October 3, 2018. Ms. Wener and Ms. Ellenbogen are able to attend. August 15 was the first day of fall program registration and there were 472 registrations, with 25 patrons on the waiting list. The teen space has been reconfigured to allow for some more quiet study space. Ms. Falasz-Peterson met with the Walden school principal. Ms. Kary Henry and Mr. Lance Higginbotham will visit DPS109 teacher orientation kick off this week to promote teacher cards.

A. Collaborative Workspace Virtual Presentation
Mr. Tom Owen, Head of IT, presented a Virtual Tour to the Board of neighboring library collaborative workspaces. Virtual tours of the following libraries were included in the presentation: Northbrook Public Library - Collaboratory and Winnetka - Studio. Ms Falasz-Peterson and Mr. Owen shared a blueprint of potential collaborative workspace with Board members.

Ms. Wener left the meeting at 7:15 p.m.

Ms. Luisa Ellenbogen is concerned about future expansion and ongoing costs. Ms. Falasz-Peterson would like more direction from the Board regarding whether she should engage with architecture and test out using the computer space downstairs, but Amy thinks that it is better upstairs where the Teaming Lab currently is. Mr. Stone agreed that the space works better upstairs. Ms. Ellenbogen believes that this space will help keep the library relevant to the community. Mr. Abosch asked Ms. Falasz-Peterson on how would we find out operating costs of maintaining this type of space. Mr. Abosch asks Board members individually their thoughts about going forward with this space. There will be more information to come in future months.
