   A. Strategic Plan Update

Ms. Amy Falasz-Peterson reported on the progress of the strategic plan. Ms. Falasz-Peterson stated that the staff will begin planning the Holiday Party at the Park District. The possible dates would be January 11 or 25, 2019. Ms. DeCorrevont will contact the Park District to check availability for Holiday Party.

Ms. Falasz-Peterson reported that our new library app will be available in November. This will tie into our new calendar roll out as well. The IT and Adult Services staff are working collaboratively on creating videos for patrons on how to use the new features.

The Adult and Youth Services staff continues to work on the collaborative programming for the 2019 Fight to Integrate Deerfield.

Ms. Falasz-Peterson shared some of the feedback from the Farmer’s Market. Ms. Wener suggested that the staff provide an iPad next year so the board could show some of the features on the website.

Ms. Falasz-Peterson shared that a member of the public called Board Members because he was concerned about the library’s study room policy. He was concerned about the first come first serve nature of the policy. He was appreciative that the board members and the director followed up to him. Ms. Falasz-Peterson reported that she spoke with staff on the policy. While the study rooms are very busy from about 2:30 pm-7 pm, they had not noticed anyone taking advantage of the policy. There isn’t a problem of the rooms being reserved and then sitting vacant for extended periods of time. And, the staff doesn’t monitor what is being done in the rooms because there is an element of some privacy. Ms. Falasz-Peterson indicated she would call the patron back after the board meeting.

Mr. Goldberg asked to update his contact telephone number on the website.
