Jim Gill's Color Game is also a fun song and game about colors!

Five Green and Speckled Frogs is a color song AND helps build math skills!

Go on a color hunt together! Whether inside or out, try to find examples of each color of the rainbow: red, orange, yellow, green, blue, indigo, and violet!

Talk together about colors!
- What's your favorite color?
- Why is it your favorite?
- Are there colors you don't like?

Use crayons or markers to make a colorful picture! Using any kind of writing instrument helps develop the muscles that will eventually hold a pen or pencil to write.
